October is a powerful month of awareness, reflection, and community action. As the leaves change, we are reminded of the importance of standing together to support causes that matter deeply. This month, we recognize Breast Cancer Awareness Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month. Let's join together as neighbors and friends to "knock out" breast cancer and shine a light on domestic violence. Awareness saves lives, and every act of support, big or small, makes a difference.

On our cover, we're proud to introduce you to an incredible young man and athlete, resident boxer David Cruze Jr. His dedication, discipline, and spirit are truly inspiring, and his story is one you won't want to miss.

We are also excited to spotlight our Sponsor of the Month, Elena Campos, of Elena Campos House Cleaning Service. Elena's journey from Brazil to building a thriving business in Clearwater is a testament to hard work, heart, and a commitment to excellence. She and her team bring not only sparkle to homes but also joy to the families they serve.

Here's to a month of strength, awareness, and community connection.

Warmly,

Devin

A Celebration of Community, Local Business, and Live Music

SAVE THE DATE AND GET YOUR TICKETS NOW

The Bluffs Business Association (BBA) is proud to host the 10th Annual Bluffs Wine Walk on Saturday, October 25th, from 3 PM to 7 PM in the heart of Belleair Bluffs. Over the last decade, the Wine Walk has grown into one of the region's most anticipated gatherings—recently honored by Tampa Bay Newspapers with the Readers' Choice Award for Best Attraction and Event across Pinellas, Hillsborough, and Pasco counties.

This milestone year promises an unforgettable experience. Guests will enjoy wine tastings at more than 80 participating local businesses, each one a proud BBA member. The afternoon will feature delicious bites, exclusive offers, and live music, creating a vibrant atmosphere perfect for strolling, sipping, and celebrating our community.

Tickets are $35 in advance and $45 on the day of the event, with sell-outs every year. For the first time ever, a VIP Experience is available for $150, offering premium tastings, elevated gifts, and special access for those who want to make this anniversary celebration even more memorable.

In addition to spotlighting local business, the Bluffs Wine Walk gives back. A portion of proceeds will benefit five local nonprofit organizations that empower our businesses and strengthen our community, ensuring the event's impact extends far beyond one day.

We are grateful to our members, sponsors, and the City of Belleair Bluffs—including Mayor Chris Arbutine, the City Commission, the City Manager, and the Public Works team—for their continued support. A special thank-you also goes to Stroll Magazine Harbor Bluffs and its owner, Devin Pappas, for always championing our community and its traditions.

If you are a local business interested in joining or a nonprofit that would like to be considered, please visit BBAstrong.com to join or fill out the application.

The Bluffs Wine Walk is more than an event—it is a celebration of small business, community pride, and giving back. Secure your tickets today and join us for an afternoon of wine, music, and memories on Saturday, October 25th.

Thank you to the Belleair Rotary for stepping up and volunteering this year!

ALL OF IT, EVERYTHING FROM THE WINS TO THE LOSSES TO GETTING HIT IN THE FACE TO KNOCKING SOMEONE DOWN. I LOVE IT ALL.”

Sports have always played an important role in David’s life, but today he’s dedicated himself to the sport of boxing. His journey began when his older cousin Drew introduced him to the gym and showed him what it meant to be a boxer. From that moment, he was hooked.

For David, it’s not just about the wins—it’s the whole experience. He says he enjoys “all of it, everything from the wins to the losses to getting hit in the face to knocking someone down. I love it all.” Currently 1-1 as an amateur boxer, his goal is to have 10 amateur fights by next year so he can compete in the Golden Glove competition.

What sets David apart in the ring is his power. Competing at 143 pounds, he brings an unusual amount of strength for his weight class, which gives him an edge as a mid-range fighter. That determination and grit come from the person he admires most—his dad. “Even though I’m a boxer, no matter what my dad goes through, he makes it out the other side like a warrior,” David says.

When he’s not in the gym or the ring, David is an easy-going guy who loves football season, cheering on the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Florida Gators, and spending time outdoors. Whether he’s on a jet ski or stretched out on the beach with friends, David knows how to balance hard work with relaxation.

With his drive, talent, and unwavering love for the sport, David is on track to make big strides in his boxing career. Harbor Bluffs is proud to cheer on one of its own as he continues to chase his goals, both in and out of the ring.

UNLEASHED LOVE: The Adorable Bond Between A Small Dog and Her Big Brother

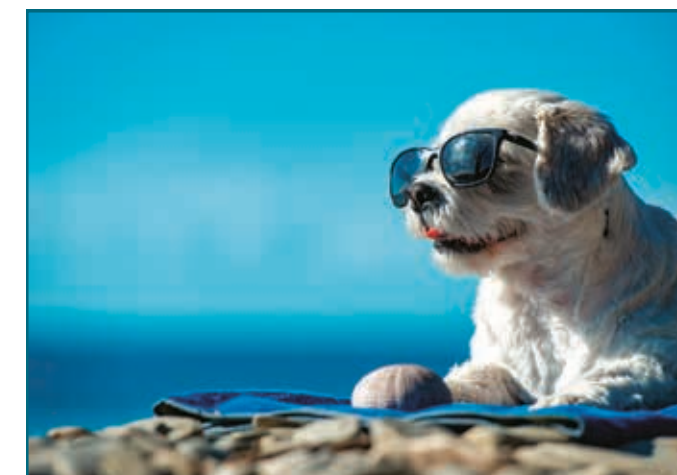

BY JEWELS CHANDLER

Pauline and Darrin Schneider have two fur babies: Reggie, a HUGE Italian Mastiff featured in Stroll's February 2020 issue, and Daisy, a 25-pound French Bulldog between 5 and 6 years old. The age is an estimate due to her being rescued from Pinellas County Animal Services. Her name came to be for no special reason—they simply liked that name for her. Mom calls her “Pea Head” as a nickname, as her head is smaller than her body. Dad nicknamed her “Mooch” because she would find a way to get whatever she wanted, be it hugs and kisses, or any attention.

Daisy has a big case of FOMO (Fear Of Missing Out)—which, let's be honest, most dogs do! She dislikes being ignored, likely a side effect of that FOMO. She loves her Nyla bone and any squeaky thing. Her favorite human food is anything and everything, and her favorite activity is cuddling with Mom, Dad, and her fur sibling Reggie. Daisy LOVES to hang out and hang over Reggie. She has a couple of funny quirks, such as relaxing in a sitting position with her legs tucked under her and jumping on Reggie with her front paws poking him until he chases after her.

Daisy loves everyone she meets, but especially her two fur friends: Reese, a King Cavalier, on Live Oak, and Tony, a Golden Retriever, on Palmetto. Although her friends are great, Daisy's fur brother Reggie is her favorite. Dad says, "She loves him and he likes her." It's a true big brother-little sister relationship, with Daisy looking to Reggie for cues on what to do next.

“CHAI LOVE YOU”

A Spiced Take on the Espresso Martini

BY JENNY AND BRIAN NICASTRO

MEET BLAKE AND OLIVIA — two locals with a taste for creativity and caffeine. Olivia is a professional ballerina, gracefully balancing rehearsals and performances, while Blake just wrapped up his master’s degree and is kicking off a promising career as a data scientist.

Their shared passions? Coffee dates, cocktail nights, and a bit of experimentation in the kitchen. Before every date night, they have a tradition: shake up a cocktail together, adding their own twist to classic recipes. Over time, their love of espresso martinis and chai lattes sparked an idea — why not combine the two?

After plenty of trial and error (and some very fun nights), the result was a cocktail they now call “Chai Love You.” It’s a spiced take on the espresso martini that blends the cozy flavors of a dirty chai with the kick of a classic coffee cocktail. Think sweet, a little spicy, and undeniably romantic — just like their story.

CHAI LOVE YOU

- Ingredients:
- 2 oz chai concentrate (they love Tazo)
 - 1 oz freshly brewed espresso
 - 1 oz vodka
 - 0.5 oz crème de cacao
 - 0.5 oz Mr. Black’s coffee liqueur

Directions:
Combine all ingredients in a shaker with ice. Shake well, strain into a chilled martini or coupe glass, and garnish with a dusting of cinnamon or a few espresso beans if you’re feeling fancy.

This cocktail is perfect for fall, date night, or anytime you want to sip something that feels a little like falling in love.

Here’s to cool nights, cozy cocktails, and finding warmth in the little things. See you next month!

Love

FROM BRAZIL TO CLEARWATER: Elena's Journey to Sparkling Success

When it comes to keeping homes in Harbor Bluffs shining bright, Elena De Campos, owner of Elena Campos House Cleaning Service, has built her business on trust, quality, and a personal touch.

Born and raised in Brazil, Elena moved to America in 1999 in pursuit of the American Dream. Determined to succeed, she learned English, became a U.S. citizen in 2007, and now speaks three languages fluently—English, Portuguese, and Spanish. Clearwater quickly became home, and in 2001, she launched her cleaning business—with just herself and two loyal clients—both doctors living in Bellaire. Over 20 years later, her team has grown to nine dedicated members, all committed to delivering exceptional service.

F amily plays an important role in Elena's life and business. While her mother and siblings live in Brazil, Portugal, and Spain, her sons Carlos and Antonio, along with her daughter-in-law Tatiana, work alongside her in the business. Together, they uphold Elena's core values of hard work, dependability, and care for every client.

Outside of running her company, Elena enjoys spending her free time golfing, working out, fishing, and boating. She believes balance is important, and these hobbies allow her to recharge while still staying active.

What sets Elena's service apart is her personal commitment to every customer. She takes the time to get to know each homeowner and ensures their satisfaction with every clean. "We provide excellent and exceptional customer service and high-quality cleaning services," Elena says. "You will always find me and my team smiling—we work with love and truly enjoy making a positive difference in your life."

For the residents of Harbor Bluffs, Elena has one piece of advice: "This is a beautiful community with beautiful homes and people. You deserve to have immaculate homes."

With more than two decades of experience and a reputation for integrity, Elena and her team continue to make homes sparkle while brightening their clients' days.

Barbara Larrabee

Author, Leader, & “The Patch Lady”

I love my Stroll Harbor Bluffs family of sponsors and neighbors, and I’m especially grateful to Devin Pappas for inviting me to share my author journey with you. My hope is that my story inspires others to tell theirs.

To clarify, I’m a contributing author to three collaborative books, each featuring a chapter I wrote, about 1,500 words, woven into a larger collection. While I didn’t write the entire books, the process of sharing a slice of my life has been both cathartic and joyful. Writing even one chapter brings its own challenges: choosing the right topic, ensuring it offers value, and making it uplifting. But when the book is published, the pride and connection you feel make it all worthwhile.

Three Books, Three Journeys

My first project, Inspirations: 101 Uplifting Stories for Daily Happiness (2019), happened because a business-savvy friend “guilted” me into it! She insisted I share a pivotal chapter of my life for both personal healing and professional branding. My story is about my late husband’s bravery in his final months and my steps to rebuild life afterward. This international bestseller led to joyful book signings in Dallas and beyond.

Next came Manifestations: True Stories of Bringing the Imagined Into Reality, also a bestseller, dedicated to those seeking to co-create a richer life. Released in April 2020, it arrived just as COVID lockdowns began, sadly canceling all our book events. Still, the experience deepened my appreciation for the magic of manifestation. My story shares how I manifested a new car that I still adore.

Most recently, I contributed “On Being Beautifully Bold” to From Start-Up to Stand Out: How Women in Business are Redefining Success. In this chapter, I highlight my 17-year journey from being a broke widow to becoming a leader helping thousands with their health and finances. Just three years ago, I was house-sharing because I couldn’t support myself. Today, I live in a Florida beach city I love, thanks in large part to my work with LifeWave, an innovative wellness technology company.

Beyond the Books

Many in our community know me as “The Patch Lady.” Through LifeWave’s phototherapy patches, I help people improve pain, energy, sleep, and more by stimulating their own stem cell activity. My mission is to help people, and even pets, live vibrantly.

Your Story Matters

Every Stroll reader has a story worth telling, whether it’s about triumph over hardship, a joyful adventure, or a lesson learned. If you’ve ever thought about writing, I encourage you to reach out to my publisher, Kyra Schaefer, at connect@asyouwishpublishing.com. Her process makes it easy, and you’ll be thrilled with the result.

All three books are available on Amazon and make meaningful gifts filled with real-life insights, challenges, and wins.

Coverage Gaps, Cost Hikes & Carrier Exits

BY LIAM ARRINGTON

The health insurance market is entering one of its most challenging years yet. With over five years of experience and access to more than 150 carriers, I've seen how quickly costs, coverage, and plan availability can shift — and 2025 is set to bring some of the biggest changes in years.

HERE'S WHAT'S ON THE HORIZON:

- Max out-of-pockets hitting five digits – More to pay before insurance covers major expenses.
 - Higher deductibles & drug deductibles – Prescriptions and routine care will cost more out-of-pocket.
 - Loss of subsidies for those earning over 400% of the Federal Poverty Level – For a family of four, that's about $160,000/year, meaning big premium increases for many households.
 - Carriers leaving the marketplace – Fewer plan options, possible provider changes.
 - Group rates rising 20–45% – A heavy hit for both employers and employees.
 - Other shifts creating coverage gaps – Narrower networks, reduced benefits, discontinued plans.
- For individuals, this could mean losing your doctor, higher prescription costs, or unexpected bills for mental health and specialty care. Even preventive care may no longer be fully covered on some plans.

For businesses, many think they can't afford to offer benefits — but this year, they can't afford not to. Losing good employees to competitors with stronger benefits can cost far more than providing coverage.

The good news? You're not stuck with one carrier's options. With over 150 carriers to compare — including group plans that require no minimum employer contribution — I can help find cost-effective, comprehensive coverage that fits your needs.

This year, more than ever, we truly need your attendance at the Raising Relief Foundation Denim and Diamond Gala. Last year, hurricanes prevented us from holding this event, making it even more important this time around. The Gala is our primary way to raise funds to support those in need within our community. Not only is it a fun and stylish event, but your participation will directly help us save lives right here in our neighborhoods.

OCTOBER AWARENESS: Standing Together for Two Important Causes

October is a month that carries powerful meaning for so many. It's both Breast Cancer Awareness Month and Domestic Violence Awareness Month, two causes that impact countless families in every community, including right here in Harbor Bluffs.

At Stroll Harbor Bluffs, we are proud to be strong advocates for both missions. We believe in the importance of raising awareness, supporting survivors, honoring fighters, and standing in solidarity with those whose lives have been forever changed by either breast cancer or domestic violence.

These awareness months are more than just symbolic. They're a call to action: a reminder to schedule health screenings, to check in on loved ones, to listen with compassion, and to connect people with the resources that can change and even save lives.

If you feel moved to take action and help support these causes directly in our area, you can make a meaningful difference through the Raising Relief Foundation. Donations can be made at raisingrelieffoundation.org, where your generosity will go toward providing much-needed resources, education, and assistance for families affected.

Together, as neighbors, we can continue to strengthen the bonds of this community, bringing awareness, hope, and support to those who need it most.

Mara Schubert will donate 100% of the proceeds of her Mary Kay Sales in October to the Raising Relief Foundation or Breast Cancer Research - Your Choice!
