WHY BUY FROM LUNGHAMER AUTOMOTIVE GROUP

At Lunghamer Automotive Group, we believe buying a vehicle should feel easy, comfortable, and built around trust. For many of our customers in the Oakhurst and Clarkston communities, Lunghamer isn't just a dealership, it's a place they've relied on for years. Families return to us for their second, third, and even fourth vehicles because they know they'll be treated with honesty, respect, and a level of care that goes beyond the transaction.

Our approach is simple: take the time to understand what each customer truly needs and guide them toward the right vehicle for their lifestyle. Whether it's a capable truck, a luxury SUV, or a vehicle for a growing family, our team focuses on making the process transparent, relaxed, and enjoyable. But the relationship doesn't end when the keys are handed over.

Our service departments are staffed with factory-trained technicians who are committed to keeping your vehicle performing at its best for years to come. From routine maintenance to advanced diagnostics, our teams focus on protecting your investment and making ownership easy.

As a dealership rooted in the community, we're proud to serve many of our neighbors from Oakhurst, Clarkston, and surrounding areas who value a dealership experience that feels personal, professional, and consistent.

At Lunghamer Automotive Group, vehicles may bring people through the door—but the experience is what keeps them coming back. Because when you choose Lunghamer, you're not just buying a vehicle. You're choosing a dealership that values relationships just as much as the road ahead.

At SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS, we believe you deserve to leave feeling refueled... so you can give the world the best of you - not just what's left of you!

SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS

Local owner Jessica Yoon chose the name “SELF SALON” for her business because those who care so much for others need to make time for their own self care. Located in the Kroger shopping center at Baldwin and Waldon, Jess makes it easy to pamper yourself with hair care and pretty nails!

JESSICA YOON, OWNER OF SELF SALON & AESTHETICS

I was raised by an incredible single mom who showed me daily what one person is truly capable of and taught me giving up is never an option.

EDUCATION

After graduating from Grand Blanc High School, I knew I was going to college but, to be honest, I had already decided my future back in kindergarten when I stood up and said I wanted to be a hairstylist. I enrolled at Central Michigan University-knowing deep down college wasn't where I wanted to be. When you have a purpose, it doesn't go away. It doesn't fade - it pulls you back.

So, without asking permission, I made one of the boldest decisions of my life. I moved myself home, found the best of the best and enrolled at Douglas J. Aveda Institute. I pursued cosmetology and discovered a passion far bigger than I ever imagined: I earned my instructor's license. I fell in love with teaching, mentoring to help shape the future of our industry.

FAITH AND FAMILY

Without my faith in God and full trust in His purpose for me, none of this would be possible. I'm also blessed to be surrounded by the people who hold me up through it all - my amazing husband, my mom and dad, my three girls and my two amazing bonus kids.

INSPIRATION

In life, there are seasons - some abundant, some challenging. There was a time, where I was pouring everything I had into everyone else, and I completely lost myself. As a new wife and mom, all I wanted to do was help and support their dreams. So I did, and I almost too good at it, because I had nothing left for mySELF. I became depressed, lost and hopeless. I didn't recognize myself.

My cup was empty. I had the life people dreamed of - but I wasn't living for me. I wasn't fulfilled. I wasn't happy. No one could save me but mySELF. The more I opened up, the more I realized... I wasn't alone. So many women around me felt the same - drained, exhausted, and disconnected from who they once were. Not because they weren't strong, but because they had forgotten themselves. That's where SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS was born.

MISSION

Our mission is deeper than beauty. It's about creating a space where women can refill their cup - where they feel safe, valued, and taken care of. At SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS, we just don't

do hair, nails, and services. We create an experience rooted in luxury, connection, and intention. Because when you feel like your best self again, you just don't change how you look - you change how you show up for others. I opened the salon with one of my first students, BRI W., who from the start, believed in not only the new salon but my vision and passion.

EXPECTATIONS

At SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS, we specialize in luxury color, multiple extension methods, trending haircuts and nail design. We've built a team-based salon culture - not suites or solo based. We work together, support each other, and elevate every guest experience - as a team.

The focus is always on luxury with purpose. From the moment you walk in, you are greeted, seen and cared for while you are with us. Enjoy drinks, snacks and your services in an aesthetically clean and welcoming environment. Every detail, from the consultations, service expectation and education, to finishing photos, is designed to go above and beyond, creating not just satisfaction but raving fans!

COMMUNITY MATTERS

We are constantly collaborating with local businesses to create events and opportunities for the community to connect. We are supporters financially for many clubs and athletics to make sure they have and get the opportunities they deserve. Last year, we were the highest donor for the Clarkston Freshman Football team. Of course, I had to support my stepson Andy and his passion. He is an amazing player and teammate on the Clarkston Football team.

GROWTH CAME FROM CHALLENGES

I didn't just open a salon, I built something out of a place when I personally felt lost, drained and unfulfilled. The growth from that challenge created a brand rooted in helping women "fill their cup" - and that's not fluff. That's my why. Clients feel it the second they walk into SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS.

The first three years of business were no joke. Expenses, payroll, inconsistent income, wearing every hat. The growth from that challenge was learning profit quicker than most in this business, learning how to drive revenue, track retail, increase service tickets, and think like a CEO - not just a stylist.

Non-negotiable: Teamwork over ego. Integrity over shortcuts. "We all open, close and show up" and that's what turns a salon into a brand. Breaking the "independent stylist" mindset and the industry's push for individuality over team, made all the difference. Stylists support each other. Clients get a consisted elevated experience. SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS funs like a unit, not silos.

We didn't just grow through challenges, we built our standards because of them. Every hard decision shaped our culture, every slow season sharpened our strategy, and every setback pushed us to become the salon people don't just visit - they rave about.

VISION FOR FUTURE

Our vision at SELF SALON & AESTHETICS is intentional GROWTH. Built on strong culture, hands-on training, and real connection. We grow together at the pace that protects our standards, while staying deeply rooted in our community. Long-term, we're building more than a salon, we're creating space to educate, mentor, and shape the next generation of beauty professionals.

Our salon continues to grow. We welcome anyone who might be interested in receiving services or working to come check us out. We would love to give you a tour and personally show you what SELF SALON AND AESTHETICS is all about. We also offer free consultations for anyone who has questions or needs guidance.

TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF

Take care of yourself like it matters, because it does. Confidence starts with how you show up for yourself daily. Small, consistent habits in self-care make the biggest difference. When we support each other as a community, we all grow.

JAYNA CUNNINGHAM

JAYNA CUNNINGHAM, 2026 OAKHURST GRADUATE

MY NAME IS JAYNA CUNNINGHAM, I am 18 and a graduating senior from Seaholm High School in Birmingham.

I've lived in Oakhurst for 9 years; what I like best about it is that I met my best friend Chloe here.

I have been involved in the Seaholm Dance Team competing in high school competitions; and for the past two years, I have been attending the UDA nationals in Florida with my team as well.

I joined the team when I was a freshman. What inspired me to join was meeting new people and hoping to make new friends and to become a great dancer. Some idols I have are the Louisiana State Tiger Girls and the Minnesota Dance Team along with Ava Wagner who is a dancer within the Minnesota Team.

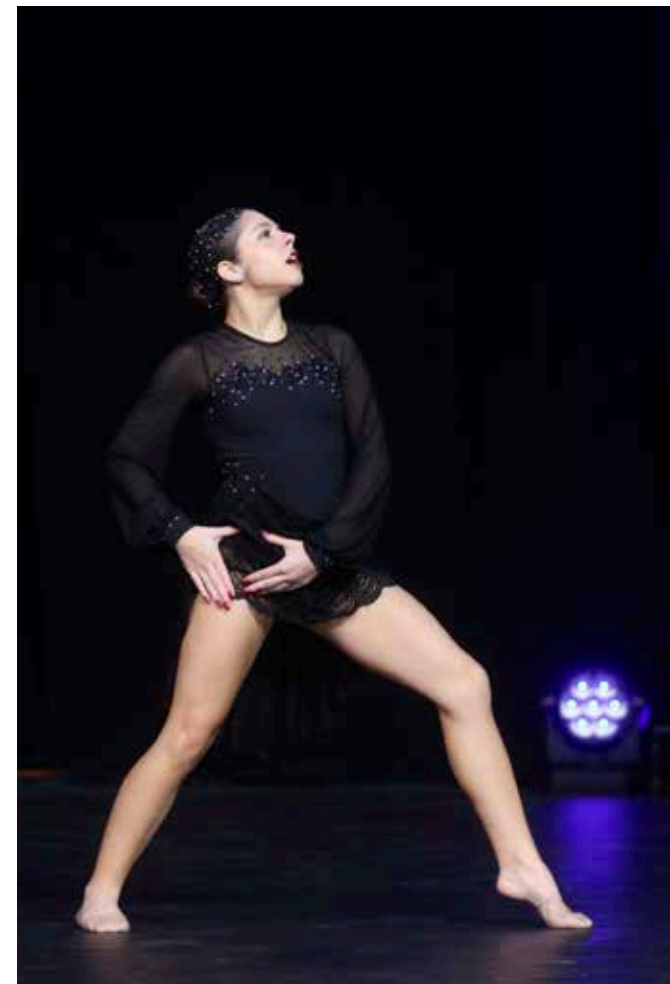

My favorite memory is winning 3rd place at the UDA nationals for my team's jazz dance this past January and it was only our second time attending! It was so exciting to be in the top three after the late-night practices and all the anticipation through the week of possibly making it to the next round and trying our best to beat the teams we were up against.

I try and get all my homework done during school hours before by practices start so when I'm tired after hours of practice, I won't have to worry about whether it's done or not.

I have gained perseverance and hard work as a member of a dance team and I have realized how important these qualities are to reach my future goals. All of my coaches have impacted my life in one way or another by trying to attack an obstacle from different angles or pushing me past my comfort zone.

My advice to young athletes is to keep pushing in whatever you do even if you feel like quitting because the best outcomes come from the hardest challenges.

Sweet Potato Waffles: A Better Bun for Your Burger

Sometimes the best swaps come from a little creativity in the kitchen, and these sweet potato waffles are a perfect example.

SAM KIMBALL, CLINICAL MANAGER AND CERTIFIED HOLISTIC NUTRITIONAL COACH

These waffles are made with shredded sweet potatoes, eggs, and a few simple seasonings. That's it. No flour, no fillers, just whole ingredients that come together to create a lightly crisp exterior with a soft, savory center. They hold up beautifully to a juicy burger and add a subtle sweetness that pairs perfectly with all your favorite toppings.

INGREDIENTS

- 3 cups shredded sweet potatoes
- 3 eggs
- 1/4-1/2 tsp salt
- 1/4-1/2 tsp pepper (white pepper works great, can be a little spicy to some)
- 1/2 tsp garlic powder
- 1/2 tsp onion powder
- Olive oil or avocado oil spray (for waffle maker)

INSTRUCTIONS

- 1. Prep the Sweet Potatoes - Peel the sweet potatoes and cut them into chunks. Using a grater (a KitchenAid attachment works great for this), shred the potatoes until you have about 3 cups.
- 2. Mix the Batter - In a large bowl, combine the shredded sweet potatoes with the eggs, salt, pepper, garlic powder, and onion powder. Mix until everything is evenly combined.
- 3. Heat the Waffle Maker - Preheat your waffle maker. A Dash waffle maker (about 4 inches) works perfectly for this recipe. Be sure to spray it well with olive oil or avocado oil. This step is key to preventing sticking.
- 4. Cook the Waffles - Scoop the mixture into the waffle maker and cook until the waffles are set and lightly crisp on the outside. Repeat with the remaining mixture. This recipe yields about 8 small waffles.
- 5. Build Your Burger - Use the waffles just like you would a bun. Add your favorite burger, toppings, and sauces, and enjoy.

These sweet potato waffles are proof that simple, whole ingredients can completely transform a meal. Whether you're looking to switch things up or just use what you have on hand, this is an easy, satisfying option that doesn't sacrifice flavor, just reimagines it.

If you're looking for an alternative to traditional store-bought buns, this simple recipe turns a handful of real ingredients into something surprisingly sturdy, flavorful, and fun.

What I love most about this recipe is how practical it is. It works for burgers, breakfast sandwiches, or really anything you'd normally use a bun for. And while it might sound a little unconventional, it's one of those recipes that wins people over quickly. My husband, who loves a classic burger, was fully expecting this to be a no-go, and even he was pleasantly surprised at how well it worked.

Senior Year is a Different Animal

One day you're packing lunches — the next, you're ordering the cap & gown. And somewhere in the mix of all the grad party planning, it hits you.

KASEY BLANCK, RESIDENT AND PHOTOGRAPHER

This month, the Oakhurst Class of 2026 is front and center — and I want to say to every parent watching it happen in real time: Take the pictures. Alllll the pictures. The commencement. The backyard party. The piles of shoes and backpacks. That little smirk you love. You'll want to remember all the little details. Yes, it's emotional. A new chapter is coming. But this next phase is a version of your child you've been helping build for 18 years. Be proud. Celebrate loudly! Soak up the summer. Let them grow. And if you have a Class of 2027 senior — now's the time to get on my calendar. Summer sessions are very limited!

SUMMER IS HERE!

I'm so excited that school is out and summer is here! I'm really sad that this was my last year at Bailey Lake Elementary, but I know I will make many more fun memories at Sashabaw Middle School!

BY VALENTINA MONTANO, JUNIOR RESIDENT WRITER

Another thing that makes me excited about summer is the bike rides that my friends and I all go on. It's my favorite because all of my friends who live in the sub get together and we play hide and seek on our bikes (or scooters) and then when we're done, we meet at someone's house to play or watch a movie. It's the best!

Another fun part about summer is the Oakhurst swim team! It's one of my favorite parts of summer because even though I have to wake up early to go, I get to see all of my friends who are also on the team and have fun with them! Plus, I love all of the swim parties we have.

I think this summer will be much more fun for me than last summer, because I'm now old enough to do things like go to the clubhouse with my friends and have a lot of big sleepovers! I'm also really excited that the Oakhurst pool is fixed and I won't be stubbing my foot on the floor anymore!

I think this summer is going to be one of the best summers ever!

I'm really excited for summer because my birthday is June 12th and that makes me happy!!

Legacy Through Generosity: Giving Back to the Communities We Call Home

BY MATTHEW DEFINIS, SENIOR MARKETING SPECIALIST, OXFORD BANK

For generations, wealth has symbolized not only prosperity but also responsibility. At Oxford Bank, we've had the privilege of walking alongside families who understand that true legacy isn't measured solely by what is accumulated—but by what is given, nurtured, and left behind for others.

In today's world, the call to give back is louder—and more important—than ever. As stewards of capital, our clients are uniquely positioned to make a profound and lasting impact on the communities they care about. Whether through philanthropy, volunteer leadership, or strategic community investments, giving back is more than charity. It's legacy-building.

WHY COMMUNITY INVESTMENT MATTERS

Communities shape us: our values, our relationships, our opportunities. Investing in them strengthens not just local economies, but the social fabric that allows all individuals to thrive. Education, healthcare, affordable housing, and cultural institutions all depend on visionary donors and engaged community members.

At Oxford Bank, we believe giving back is both a moral calling and a strategic opportunity. Philanthropic giving can offer tax advantages, strengthen family bonds, and build a legacy that transcends generations.

WAYS TO GIVE BACK — MEANINGFULLY

1. Family Foundations

Establishing a private foundation offers a structured, enduring way to manage charitable giving. Many Oxford Bank clients use foundations to involve their children and grandchildren in the grant making process, teaching stewardship and values along the way.

2. Donor-Advised Funds (DAFs)

For those seeking flexibility, DAFs provide an immediate tax benefit while allowing donors to recommend grants over time. They're a powerful tool for those who wish to make a difference now while planning for the future.

3. Local Partnerships

Supporting community organizations, sponsoring local events, or funding small businesses through micro-loans or investment funds are meaningful ways to directly support the neighborhoods that matter most to you. Our very own Jeni Sherby, Branch Manager at the Clarkston branch, is a board member of the Clarkston Area Youth Assistance. This is one of many Oxford Bank engages with the communities we serve.

4. Strategic Volunteering

Time is one of the most precious gifts you can give. Many of our clients choose to serve on nonprofit boards, offer pro bono services, or mentor aspiring entrepreneurs. These contributions often prove just as impactful—and rewarding—as financial donations.

BUILDING A LEGACY TOGETHER

At Oxford Bank, we understand that wealth management and finances extends beyond portfolios and balance sheets. We help families define what wealth means to them—and how it can serve a larger purpose.

Whether you're looking to create a philanthropic plan, start a family foundation, or explore community-focused investment opportunities, our Wealth Advisory team is here to help you align your financial goals with your values.

Because at the end of the day, legacy is not just about what we leave to our communities—but what we leave in them.

Thank you for being part of our community. Thank you for banking with Oxford.

Practicing Gratitude Makes The World A Better Place

June brings us so much goodness: high school seniors graduating, Father’s Day gatherings, the last day of school, and the beginning of summer. It’s a month of taking action, embracing change, and celebrating.

GRADUATING SENIORS

For graduating seniors, this is a time of closing a major chapter and embarking on your next adventure. As opportunities come your way, be sure to thank those who helped you become who you are today. Yes, use your words, but also show gratitude with a kind gesture or a small gift.

Gratitude is about taking the initiative to create a better world through your thoughts, words, and actions. As you act, give thanks, and you will receive; and in turn you will generate more positivity in the world.

Warmly,
Katlyn

PRACTICE

Take a moment and write down 10 things you are grateful for everyday, for 10 days. If you'd like to share your process or experience, send me an email at Katlyn@unityhealingmi.com and we can practice together.

My name is Katlyn (Kate-lyn), and I'm a Healer Practitioner at Unity Healing Institute on Dixie Highway in Clarkston. My husband and I met learning how to lead the Max Meditation System™ and how to facilitate the Aura Healing and Life Activation. We met while deepening our care and service for others, which is a tenant of our lives- to live like Jesus Christ, which is to live in service to others to make the world a better place.
