Social Pet Hotel & Daycare

Daycare • Boarding • Grooming • Training

Locally, family owned and operated since 2014 with three Charlotte-area locations: Pineville, Monroe Road, and Northlake. We are built on a mission to provide a healthier, safer, and more enriched alternative to traditional dog daycare and lodging.

At Social Pet daycare we balance enrichment combining structured play with mental challenges, and restorative rest. We offer small, intentional playgroups with meaningful interactions that rotate between play sessions, skill practice, sensory activities, one-on-one engagement, and rest, thus creating a healthier overall experience.

Our focus is not just play, but helping dogs live balanced, fulfilled lives – mind and body.

"Our 8 month Chocolate Lab, Bosun, loves Social Pet... I never have to worry when he is there because they have cameras you can view and they always text me pictures. Highly recommend Social Pet!"

– Lisa P.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE

Closing the Year with Thanks

Dear Neighbors,

December is a month that naturally brings us back to what matters most—family, gratitude and the small traditions that make this season special. As we close out another year in Ballantyne, I find myself reflecting on how fortunate we are to call this community home. Every photo you send, every story you share and every event you attend strengthens the fabric of this neighborhood and reminds us why this work is such a privilege.

We put significant effort into curating meaningful content each month, but our mission goes far beyond the printed pages. Throughout the year, we host gatherings designed to bring neighbors, local leaders and business partners into the same room—creating genuine connections that enrich life here. Your willingness to engage, welcome new faces and celebrate our neighborhood's accomplishments is what makes these events successful and memorable.

Behind the scenes, our team works hard to highlight the families, students, athletes, businesses and volunteers who contribute to Ballantyne's exceptional character. We are intentional about sharing stories that reflect who we are: a community rooted in connection, generosity and pride. Your involvement makes this possible. Whether you've contributed an article, volunteered for a feature, supported a local business or simply enjoyed the magazine with your morning coffee, you are part of what keeps Stroll thriving.

Ballantyne is beautiful not just for its homes and greenspaces, but for the people who bring it to life every day. Thank you for allowing us to serve you, tell your stories and create opportunities for neighbors to meet, grow and build lasting relationships.

As we look ahead, we're excited for another year of connection, celebration and community. Each year, we work to expand what we offer—adding new events, deeper stories and more ways for neighbors to meet and engage. It is an honor to walk alongside you, and an even greater honor to serve such an extraordinary place.

Happy Holidays,

Ashley

ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

Elle Williams shares both a love of sports and the encouragement of a close-knit family with her brother Cooper, a high school sophomore and great golfer. Elle, an eighth grader, is making her own mark in athletics with the same determination. Supported by their parents, Brett and Angela, and cheered on at home by their Havapoo puppy, Rory, it's time to spotlight Elle.

Eighth grader Elle has already proven herself to be a multi-talented athlete with a bright future ahead. A student at Holy Trinity Catholic Middle School, Elle is known for her drive, discipline and infectious enthusiasm—qualities that shine on the soccer field, cheer sidelines and beyond.

Elle's path into sports began early. "I've always been athletic," she explains. At one point, she was balancing competitive gymnastics, soccer and dance studies with The Charlotte Ballet. She even performed in The Nutcracker, taking on three small roles and appearing in 22 shows during December 2022. Eventually, she chose to focus on soccer while continuing with school cheer, which keeps her connected with friends and allows her to enjoy elements of both dance and gymnastics.

Her commitment to soccer has already opened doors. This past summer, Elle's coaches nominated her to try out for the Olympic Development Program (ODP), which identifies advanced players for higher levels of training. "Fingers crossed I get asked to be a part of that program this year," she says, hopeful and determined.

Elle loves soccer's demanding mix of technical skill and explosive athleticism. "It has given me resilience and discipline that helps in all aspects of my life," she shares. Off the field, her strong organizational skills help her balance the demands of travel soccer, schoolwork and cheer. She relies on lists, a color-coded calendar and Post-it reminders to keep everything on track.

Her inspiration comes from legendary player Mia Hamm. "She's known for her work ethic, which to me, is everything I strive to embody," Elle notes. Teachers also admire her determination and high standards in the classroom.

Whether she's chasing goals on the field or cheering from the sidelines, Elle's passion and focus make her stand out. With plans to one day become a dentist or orthodontist, she's proof that hard work and balance can shape not only an athlete, but also a leader for the future.

Serving Charlotte, Ballantyne, Lake Norman, Waxhaw, Fort Mill & Surrounding Areas

Mercedes-Benz of South Charlotte: Driven by Excellence

For Mercedes-Benz of South Charlotte, luxury isn't just about the vehicles—it's about the experience.

Tom Marcham,
General Manager

“WE KNOW EXACTLY what our customers are looking for, and we don’t settle for anything less than the Ritz-Carlton experience,” says General Manager Tom Marcham, who brings more than four decades of industry expertise to his role. Originally from Chicago, Tom spent 14 years managing a Mercedes-Benz dealership there before relocating to Charlotte in 2011 to lead the South Charlotte store for Felix Sabates. “Felix built this dealership with a deep commitment to service,” he says. “When he retired and sold to Roger Penske in 2021, he knew the legacy would continue.” Today, Mercedes-Benz of South Charlotte is the top-volume Mercedes-Benz dealer in a four-state region, recognized not just for its vehicles but for its dedication to excellence at every customer touchpoint. Now under the Penske Automotive Group, Mercedes-Benz of South Charlotte continues to set the standard for luxury service. “We’ve become a service business—people buy from us because of the way we treat them, not just what we sell,” Tom explains. The dealership’s focus on quality over quantity has earned it loyalty from customers and the community alike.

“We run our business knowing we are here to stay. We are loyal to Charlotte and our customers, and our customers are loyal to us and the brand. They are more than just customers; they are family.”
—TOM MARCHAM, GENERAL MANAGER, MERCEDES-BENZ OF SOUTH CHARLOTTE

“We’d rather do less business and do it right.” Tom and his team proudly support local nonprofits including the Allegro Foundation, St. Jude’s, Second Harvest Food Bank, Nourish Up and Classroom Central. “We want to give back to the community that gives to us,” Tom says. “Our customers aren’t just customers—they’re family.” After 30 years of marriage, Tom and his wife are celebrating their anniversary with a trip to Greece this fall. With four children and three grandchildren (plus one more on the way), he says family—like customer service—will always be his driving force.

CRICKET

Cricket Bickler may be small, but she has a big presence — both at home and around the neighborhood. This energetic 5½-year-old mixed breed is a unique blend of Australian cattle dog, beagle, chow chow, basset hound and several other breeds. Her story began in Richmond, where she was rescued from a difficult start before finding her forever family through an adoption program based in Nashville. The Bicklers met her in a Cracker Barrel parking lot in Wytheville, VA — and as soon as Cricket locked eyes with her new family, they knew she was meant to be theirs.

Her name, fittingly, came with her. Originally named Cricket by the neighbor who found her wandering, the Bicklers quickly realized how perfect it was for this lively, 30-pound ball of energy. True to her name, she’s always in motion, whether chasing toys or greeting golfers along the fairway. In fact, Cricket has become something of a local celebrity — golfers often call out her name as they pass, and even the golf course superintendent stops by for a visit when making his rounds.

At home, Cricket sleeps comfortably in her own bed near her family’s room and loves nothing more than a good tug-of-war game — which, according to her humans, is “mandatory.” She’s known to keep a close eye (and nose) out for yogurt containers nearing the end — her favorite treat to lick clean. “My mother lives with us and says that Cricket rules the roost. She lets you know exactly what she wants and when she wants it,” says Marc. She’s very fast and agile. “Dogs famously chase squirrels,” explains Marc. “For the first couple of years, Cricket caught several of them. I will spare the readers the outcomes. She has thankfully refrained from that activity.”

Though she once had a beloved “boyfriend,” Paz the German Shepherd, who has since passed away, she remains affectionate toward his owner — a sweet reminder of her loyal and loving nature. The Bicklers adopted her during the isolation of Covid, and she’s been a source of happiness ever since. As they put it, “Cricket brings to our home what all good dogs bring — she reminds us to make contact with our loved ones every day. She greets us all without fail. She’s always very happy to see us when we come back.”

RESIDENT RECIPE

German

Chocolate Cake

BY CONTRIBUTING WRITER NANCY WILLIAMS

German Cake Mix with Pudding*

Preheat oven as noted on box. Follow mix directions but add a teaspoon of vanilla. Place batter in three round cake pans that have been coated with non-stick cooking spray. Cook according to box. *I originally made scratch cake batter but over time realized that the recipe was easier and still delicious using the mix. The scratch frosting makes the cake!!

Coconut Pecan Frosting | Mix together:

- 12 oz. can evaporated milk
- 1½ cups sugar
- 5 egg yolks, beaten
- ¾ cup butter
- 1½ teaspoons vanilla

Cook slowly and stir until thickened (12 minutes or longer). Then add:

- 2 cups angel flake coconut
- 1½ cups chopped pecans

Beat until cool enough to spread between layers, on sides and on top of the cake.

To share your recipe, please email Delia at ballantyne@strollmag.com.

CELL ENTERPRISES

Empowering small businesses to scale smarter

BY CONTENT COORDINATOR DELIA MCMULLEN

When local entrepreneur Scott Witte founded CELL Enterprises, his vision was clear: to help small businesses grow through structure, strategy and sales excellence—not just word of mouth. After decades in sales leadership across multiple industries, Scott noticed a common challenge among small business owners: while referrals kept their businesses running, few had a defined, repeatable process to drive consistent growth. CELL Enterprises was built to change that.

At its core, CELL Enterprises provides Sales as a Service and Fractional Sales Leadership, partnering directly with business owners to act as their outsourced sales organization. “We become a part of our clients’ business,” Scott explains. “We provide the leadership, tools and systems—from marketing and prospecting to CRM implementation—to guide them through every step of the sales process until the deal is closed.”

Unlike typical lead-generation firms, CELL Enterprises focuses on the full sales experience. “Our difference is that CELL provides an experience, not just a service,” Scott says. “With over 40 years of combined sales experience in a variety of industries, we’ve developed proprietary processes that are adaptable to every small and mid-sized business.”

That expertise is already paying off. One local technology company, struggling with stagnant revenue, partnered with CELL to define a growth strategy. “We implemented a marketing plan, expanded their lead generation and documented a repeatable process for sales and revenue growth,” Scott shares. “Within 10 months, they achieved 200% revenue growth.”

As a hands-on leader and father of four, Scott is equally passionate about community. He supports local youth athletics, coaches when he can and sponsors initiatives such as Toys for Tots and local 5Ks. His family has been part of the Ballantyne Country Club community since 2016, where they enjoy golf, swimming and supporting the March of Dimes.

Looking ahead, Scott sees technology—especially AI—as a major force in shaping the future of sales. “AI is huge,” he notes. “Any business, regardless of size, that isn’t adapting will be left behind.” His goal for the next few years is to evolve CELL’s short-term contracts into long-term partnerships, helping more small businesses achieve sustainable success.

Whether your company needs a growth plan, leadership structure or simply a clearer sales roadmap, Scott invites business owners to start a conversation. “I don’t charge for a consultation,” he says. “Time is everything—don’t wait to grow your business.”

FROM THE SPECIALIST'S CHAIR

Five Eye-Opening Fertility Facts

BY DR. SETH KATZ

FACT #4: EVEN IF YOU'VE ALREADY HAD A CHILD, SECONDARY INFERTILITY IS POSSIBLE.

Secondary infertility—the inability to get pregnant naturally or carry a pregnancy to term after successfully conceiving one or more children—is actually quite common. According to RESOLVE: The National Infertility Association, approximately 12% of women in the United States have secondary infertility, and it accounts for more than half of all infertility cases.

Dr. Seth Katz is the medical director at Reach Fertility and sees patients in the Charlotte and Ballantyne locations.

FACT #5: KNOWING WHEN TO SEEK HELP GIVES YOU THE MOST OPTIONS.

For women younger than 35, infertility is defined as six to 12 months of unprotected intercourse without conception occurring. For women 35 to 39 and older, we recommend seeing a specialist right away.

Knowing when to seek treatment and early intervention can make all the difference in your ability to get pregnant sooner. At Reach, a referral from your OB/GYN is not required and the initial consultation is covered by insurance 90% of the time.

If you are looking for a fertility specialist, the team at Reach Fertility would love to meet with you. Reach Fertility has locations in Charlotte, Ballantyne and Lake Norman. Our team of trusted fertility experts have been turning patients into parents for over 30 years.

FACT #1: INFERTILITY DOESN'T DISCRIMINATE.

Infertility is a disease of the reproductive system, and it affects both men and women. For this reason, during the initial infertility work-up, it's imperative to test the male partner's fertility as well as the female partner's fertility.

FACT #2: YOU ARE NOT ALONE.

On average, one in six couples of reproductive age will be affected by an infertility diagnosis. However, with the help of fertility specialists and reproductive technologies, parenthood is often still very possible for most people.

FACT #3: AGE MATTERS THE MOST WHEN IT COMES TO FERTILITY.

A woman's fertility naturally decreases with age, and fertility treatment results follow the same downward trend; they decrease beginning in the early 20s and drop more rapidly after 35. But what about those Hollywood stars who are having babies at 45, 48 and even 52? Those women are most likely using donor eggs or donor embryos...a real option if you are open to the possibilities.

REACH FERTILITY

Fertility Care, Close to Home

Reach Fertility Clinic has been turning patients into parents for over 35 years. Now open in Ballantyne, we're proud to help build families right here in your neighborhood.

Whether you're just starting your fertility journey or looking for a second opinion, our team of expert reproductive endocrinologists and compassionate care coordinators are with you every step of the way.

Ombré Nail Ballantyne

A touch of luxury, a world of warmth

BY CONTENT COORDINATOR
DELIA MCMULLEN

When Ty Truong and his business partner Lee Ngo moved from Kansas City to Charlotte earlier this year, they brought with them not only years of experience in the nail industry, but also a shared vision—to create a welcoming, high-end space where clients could relax, recharge and enjoy top-tier beauty services. The result is Ombré Nail Ballantyne, one of the area’s largest and most elegant nail salons, located conveniently at 15033 Ballancroft Parkway.

Ty and Lee, both originally from Vietnam, began their careers in Kansas City after immigrating to the US in 2015. Over nine years, they built a successful small salon and a loyal clientele. When Ty’s wife Ivy and daughter Harper joined him from Vietnam two years ago, the family quickly realized that Midwestern winters were a little too cold for comfort. “The snow drove them crazy,” Ty laughs. “We wanted better weather and randomly picked North Carolina. We love it here so far.” Lee and his wife, Yumi Tran, have a son Thien and daughter Anla. Ombré Nail Ballantyne is designed for both indulgence and efficiency. With 18 pedicure chairs (plus two child-size chairs) and 14 manicure stations, the salon can accommodate large groups—perfect for bridal parties, birthdays or a friends’ day out. A team of 15 licensed and professional nail technicians ensures every client receives expert care. Beyond nails and pedicures, Ombré also offers facials and eyebrow services, making it a full-service beauty destination.

Ty and his family

What truly sets Ombré apart, however, is the atmosphere. “We don’t just do nails—we create a relaxing experience,” Ty explains. Guests are greeted with friendly service, soothing music and complimentary drinks to complete the spa-like visit. The salon’s reputation for cleanliness, professionalism and kindness has quickly earned it glowing online reviews and loyal repeat customers.

As a special welcome to the community, Ombré Nail Ballantyne offers 10% off all services for residents of Ballantyne Country Club and Firethorne.

—TY TRUONG

“This was my first time at Ombré Nails and I absolutely loved it! I went to get my nails done for my birthday and they were done so well. Jannie did my nails and spent so much time on them to make them perfect for me. I loved how she was really easy to talk to and made my experience amazing! Definitely recommend to anyone looking for different types of designs!”

—M. SMANTHA

“Our family of four, including the hubs, all had pedis and two of us had manis. Honestly the kindest, most hospitable, lovely staff I’ve ever met in a nail salon. Exceptional service across the board. We are all so happy with our pampered hands and feet. Very clean, bright, large space with plenty of wonderful massage pedicure chairs for you and lots of friends. Samantha, Ivy, Ty and our other nail techs were all outstanding. Five stars for sure. I’d give ten if I could!”

—S. PARKIES

“At Ombré Nail, we pride ourselves on offering a luxurious experience in a clean, relaxing environment. Our professional staff is dedicated to providing top-tier nail care using high-quality products and the latest techniques.”

London Calling

BY RESIDENT REPORTER YUMO YUAN

This past summer, instead of logically planning my college prep, I decided it was best to wait until mid-August to shop, pack and get there. Before all my chaos, I took a 10-day long hiatus in London, where I took my parents on the wrong subway line, walked 15,000 steps a day and ate some great food.

While there were countless highlights, I was given a much smaller word count, so here are my top 10 things to do in London and its surroundings.

1. Visit Borough Market just for the chocolate-covered strawberries –despite the contrary argument that they're overhyped. (And see the London Eye and London Bridge while you're in the area).

2. Step inside the Notting Hill Bookstore and visit the Portobello Road Market.

3. Watch a musical. I highly recommend SIX, but any will do.

4. Have breakfast at the Breakfast Club. This was the best breakfast spot during my entire trip.

5. Visit Oxford and Cambridge. If you visit towards the end of June, you may get a sneak peek into graduation season—and it will be warm enough to take a punting tour.

6. Tour Windsor Castle. Why not do something educational during your stay?

7. Go to Paddington Station. Take pictures with all the Paddington statues and get a souvenir from the Paddington store.

8. Shop at Harrods and Selfridges, because why not?

9. Take an afternoon stroll in Kensington Gardens and admire Kensington Palace from a distance.

10. Walk around Buckingham Palace. If you visit early enough, you could see the Changing of the Guard.

And there you have it! If you ever have a chance to visit, snap a pic for the Insta.

To share your travels, please email Delia at ballantyne@strollmag.com.

You pick out the tree. I'll bring the key.

Be home for the holidays.

Please call me if you are considering listing or buying in the new year!

How Do You Wrap Memories for the Holidays?

You Give Experiences They Can Share for a Lifetime.

BY SHELLEY BENITEZ, CO-FOUNDER/
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER,
THE ELEGANCE OF TRAVEL

The holidays have a way of reminding us what truly matters: connection, joy and the moments that linger long after the decorations are packed away. Yet, each year, finding the perfect gift can feel like an endless search. What do you give the person who has everything? The friend with refined taste? The family member who values meaning over things?

There is one gift that quietly rises above the rest: the gift of experience.

Things Are Unwrapped.

Experiences Are Remembered.

A handbag may be admired. A watch may be treasured. But an experience becomes part of a family's story.

The laughter echoing along cobblestone streets in Florence. A sunrise over the Serengeti, shared with someone who matters. The first sip of champagne on the terrace of a Parisian suite, just as the Eiffel Tower begins to sparkle.

These moments stay imprinted in the memory's keepsake box, long after material gifts lose their novelty.

Why Experiences Matter More

In today's world, time has become the rarest luxury. We move quickly, chase schedules and multitask our way through life. Experiences slow the world down. They create presence.

They say: "I see you," and "I value our time," and "Let's create something we will remember forever."

Travel, in particular, has a unique way of opening the heart. It deepens relationships, broadens perspective and invites wonder. The world reminds us that life can be extraordinary when we choose to live it intentionally.

A Gift That is Personal, Not Generic

A thoughtfully tailored travel experience is not simply booking a flight and hotel. It is curated—designed exclusively around the story you want to tell and the memories you want to create.

Whether it's:

- A multi-generational holiday escape designed for all ages
- A private wellness retreat in the Alps
- A once-in-a-lifetime journey to Tokyo during cherry blossom season
- Or a hidden-lagoons-and-private-chef getaway along the Amalfi Coast

The experience becomes as unique as the people enjoying it.

This is The Elegance of Travel's specialty:

crafting bespoke, elevated travel experiences with insider access, refined accommodations and seamless planning—for those who value time, privacy and unforgettable moments. Because your journey should feel as exceptional as your life.

This Holiday Season, Don't Wrap a Gift. Wrap a Memory.

Imagine surprising your loved ones with an elegantly presented envelope under the tree—not containing "stuff," but revealing a journey designed just for them.

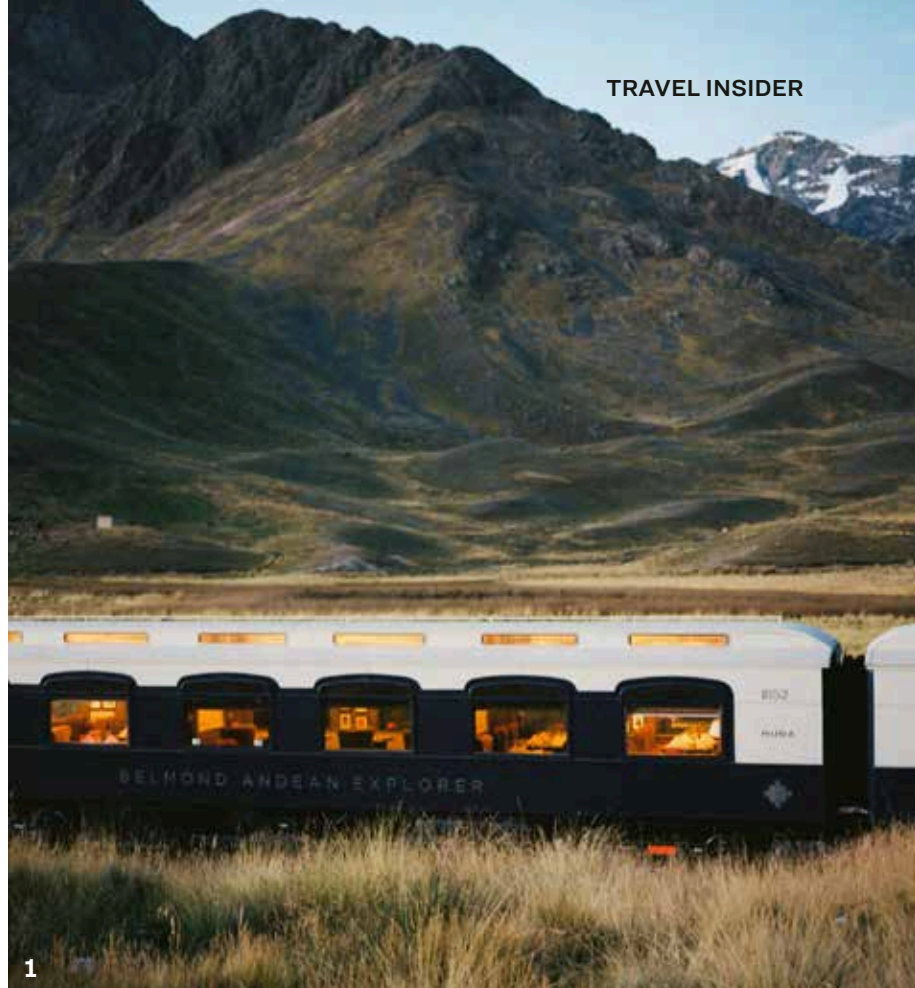

A promise of togetherness. A shared adventure waiting to unfold. A future memory already glowing.

Some gifts are opened once. The gift of travel is unwrapped again and again, every time the story is told.

HOME OF THE MONTH

THE WHITE FAMILY

PHOTOGRAPHY BY TIFFANY RINGWALD

Kevin and Melissa White, longtime residents of Ballantyne Country Club, have called Smart Lane home for 11 years. Built in 2002, the house recently underwent a thoughtful transformation that reflects both style and functionality, perfectly suited to their family of five, which includes their three sons. The Whites completed a series of renovations between 2022 and 2023. The updates included a redesigned kitchen and living room, along with a fresh new look for the primary bathroom and a fully renovated basement kitchen. The goal was to create spaces that are both beautiful and practical—ideal for busy family life and entertaining.

Melissa shares that the living room is her favorite space in the house. With open views of both the front and back yards and direct connection to the terrace and kitchen, it serves as the hub of family activity. “We’re able to keep up with the comings and goings of our boys when they’re at home,” she explains, noting that it’s where daily life and family togetherness naturally come together.

Beyond their home, the Whites appreciate everything BCC has to offer. “We love the location, the quiet calm of the neighborhood, the friendliness of our neighbors and the activities and opportunities BCC provides for us to spend time together as a family,” says Melissa.

Their renovations have not only refreshed the home’s style but also reinforced its role as the warm, welcoming center of family life—a perfect fit for the community they love.

Priti Patel

OUR SKIN IS SO IMPORTANT, yet it's often neglected—exposed daily to stress, makeup and the sun's damaging rays. At Le Petit Spa, with locations in Ballantyne and SouthPark, every service is designed to rejuvenate, hydrate and restore youthful radiance—helping women feel confident, beautiful and glowing from the inside out.

Our award-winning spa offers a wide range of luxurious, non-invasive treatments including custom facials, hydrating facials, anti-aging facials, facial sculpting, collagen induction therapy, lash lifts, waxing and light therapy. Each esthetician is highly trained to personalize every treatment, revealing visibly smoother, firmer and healthier skin. “Our guests don’t just feel refreshed; they see real improvements in the health and vitality of their skin,” shares owner Priti Patel.

A Ritual of Renewal

Every woman deserves to feel cared for and radiant. At Le Petit Spa, each visit is more than a beauty treatment—it's a mindful moment of self-love that rejuvenates the skin and soul. Our signature hydrating and anti-aging facials replenish moisture, reduce fine lines and restore firmness to tired, sun-exposed skin. These treatments not only improve tone and texture but bring back that dewy, youthful glow every woman deserves. “We focus on customization,” Priti explains. “Every skin is unique, and our goal is to help each guest feel seen, understood and confident in their own natural beauty.”

Luxury Rooted in Nature

Our exclusive La Fleur Luxury Skincare Oil, formulated by Priti and bottled in Canada, blends antioxidants and botanical extracts that combat sun damage, soften wrinkles and boost elasticity. It nourishes the face, body and hair—leaving a silky glow and a delicate, uplifting scent that makes every woman feel radiant. “It's made entirely from natural ingredients,” Priti says. “It turns daily skincare into a luxurious ritual.”

The Art of Confidence

Le Petit—meaning “The Small”—reflects the spa's intimate atmosphere, but the results are transformative. Each service merges science, artistry and touch to restore balance, beauty and youthful confidence. For over 14 years, Le Petit Spa has been celebrated by the Charlotte Observer and Best of Ballantyne (BOB) with honors including Best Day Spa, Best Facial, Best Waxing, Best Esthetician and Best Lash. From busy moms to executives and A-list personalities, Charlotte women trust Le Petit Spa to keep their skin luminous, hydrated and age-defying. “When women feel good in their skin,” Priti says, “they carry that confidence everywhere they go.”

Give the Gift of Radiance

This season, celebrate yourself—or someone special—with our 12 Days of Glow gifts, featuring rejuvenating anti-aging facials, hydrating treatments
